

Stop objectification

Art-house style
video performance

Women deserve the same respect and opportunities as men in every aspect of life. They should not be confined to stereotypical roles or judged based on their ability to perform household chores.