

Cover Letter

Dear Esteemed Admissions Committee,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my sincere and enthusiastic interest in the LL.M. Program in International Business and Trade Law. As someone who has completed a degree in Business Administration, I am deeply excited about the prospect of furthering my education and expertise in law, particularly in the context of international business and trade. My academic background in Business Administration has endowed me with a robust understanding of various aspects of business operations, including finance, marketing, and management. Through my studies, I gained valuable insights into strategic decision-making, organizational behavior, and financial analysis. However, what truly ignited my passion was the realization of the critical role that legal frameworks play in shaping the success of businesses, especially startups. Driven by a desire to bridge the gap between business administration and law, I began researching ways to combine my expertise to provide specialized services to startups in Lithuania and the broader region. I soon identified a significant need for legal consultation tailored to the specific challenges faced by startups, particularly in navigating regulatory compliance, intellectual property protection, and contractual agreements. Therefore, I am passionate about establishing a consultation company dedicated to assisting startups in overcoming legal hurdles and fostering growth. However, I recognize the importance of furthering my education to achieve this goal effectively. This is why I am drawn to the LL.M. Program in International Business and Trade Law, as it offers a comprehensive curriculum specifically designed to equip professionals like me with the necessary legal expertise to thrive in the global business landscape. The LL.M. program's curriculum, with core courses such as Company Law and Corporate Governance, International Commercial Arbitration, and International Commercial Contracts, among others, directly addresses the areas crucial for my career aspirations. These courses will not only deepen my theoretical understanding but also provide practical insights into legal strategies for international business transactions, dispute resolution, and contract negotiations. Moreover, I am particularly impressed by the program's emphasis on practical legal skills and its integration of theory, practice, research, and project-based activities. The opportunity to participate in international competitions. Furthermore, the program's flexibility, including online modules and evening classes, is essential for someone like me, balancing professional commitments with academic pursuits. This flexibility ensures that I can effectively manage my time and fully engage with the coursework. Additionally, the prospect of learning from an international faculty with practical industry experience is invaluable. Interacting with experts who have firsthand knowledge of global legal trends and challenges will enrich my learning experience and broaden my perspective. Residing in Lithuania, I am eager to enhance my skills and educational background in law. I firmly believe that the LL.M. Program in International Business and Trade Law will provide me with the necessary tools and knowledge to achieve my career goals. In conclusion, I am genuinely excited about the prospect of being a part of this esteemed program and contributing to its diverse and dynamic academic community. Thank you for considering my application. Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Sahbi Mohamed

Future Project: Consultancy Firm for Startups and Investors in Lithuania and the Region

In the next phase of my career, I plan to expand and further specialize my consultancy firm to meet the evolving needs of startups and investors in Lithuania and the region. My future project includes:

Enhancing Services for Startups:

- Offering tailored legal consultation services to startups, including assistance with regulatory compliance, contract drafting and negotiation, and intellectual property protection.
- Providing strategic advice on business development, market entry strategies, and growth opportunities.
- Developing educational resources and workshops to empower startups with the knowledge and skills needed to succeed in today's competitive market.

Advisory Services for Investors:

- Assisting high-net-worth individuals and investment firms in identifying and evaluating investment opportunities in Lithuania and the region.
- Conducting due diligence on potential investments, including legal and financial analysis, risk assessment, and market research.
- Advising on investment structuring, tax optimization, and exit strategies to maximize returns and minimize risks.

Expansion to Belarus:

- Recognizing the growing potential of the Belarusian market, I aim to expand my consultancy firm's operations to provide similar services to startups and investors in Belarus.
- Establishing partnerships with local legal and business professionals to ensure comprehensive support and expertise in navigating the Belarusian business landscape.

Continuous Professional Development:

- Committing to ongoing education and training to stay abreast of the latest developments in international business law and investment trends.
- Participating in relevant conferences, seminars, and professional associations to expand my knowledge and network.

Conclusion

In conclusion, I am excited about the prospect of further developing my consultancy firm to become a trusted advisor for startups and investors in Lithuania, Belarus, and the broader region. Through a combination of specialized expertise, strong networks, and a commitment to excellence, I am confident in my ability to contribute to the success of my clients and make a meaningful impact in the field of international business and trade law. Should you require any further information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,
