To European Humanities University

Dear Sir / Madam,

I am writing to enthusiastically support Aksana Pupko.

Aksana Pupko has been a volunteer with Samantha Smith's Group for the past few months. During this time, she has proved herself in a very good way. Her hard work and contribution to our project's development and growth cannot be overstated. Aksana is a very proactive person and during the time she has been with us she became one of the core volunteers of the project.

Since joining the programme in January, she has been engaged in various roles. Aksana has been working as a volunteer coordinator liaising with students and a teacher and setting up and monitoring language class groups.

She has also been engaged as a Speaking Clubs coordinator making the every week schedule and arranging classes for students of different levels.

Aksana has a kind character and a wide outlook. She has shown attentiveness, the ability to listen, resilience to stress and a desire to create a comfortable environment for students. She effectively carried out the work entrusted to her.

Her great personality and responsible approach to work will make Aksana Pupko an excellent candidate for any organization.

You can read more about the Samantha Smith's Group mission on our website:
